

The 16 covered bridges in Kings County, New Brunswick

Bayswater (Milkish Inlet No. 1)

Built in 1920. 2 spans at 31.4m (103')

On Rte. 845, across Milkish Inlet. Turn right off Hardings Point Rd at the Westfield ferry.

Bloomfield Creek

Built in 1917. Length 44.5m (146')

Follow Route 121 to Bloomfield, at junction with Route 855. Follow nearby Bloomfield Station Road to bridge.

Centreville (Millstream River No. 5)

Built in 1911. Length 28.9m (95')

(3.8 metre tall clearance, 15-ton capacity)

Follow Rte. 10 to Berwick. Turn on to Rte. 880 and follow to Pleasant Ridge Branch Road on your left. Bridge visible at Rte. 880/branch road junction.

Darlings Island Nauwigewauk (Not in service)

Built in 1914. Length 41.7m (137')

Take Exit 142 from Hwy 1 onto Route 100. Follow to Station Loop Road then turn onto Darlings Island Road. Follow for approximately two miles, until you see the bridge on your left.

French Village (Hammond River No. 2)

Built in 1912. Length 55.2m (181')

From Route 100, turn on to Rte. 860. Follow Rte. 860 (Lakeside Road) 3 km past Hwy 1 overpass before turning right on to Smith Road. Follow to bridge.

MacFarlane (Wards Creek No. 2) Wards Creek

Built in 1909. Length 17.7m (58') (one of two shortest covered bridges in county)

From Sussex Corner, follow Rte. 111 (New Line Road) to Upper Wards Creek. Turn right, follow blue signs to covered bridge. After bridge, continue on to Church Avenue, Sussex.

Malone (Kennebecasis River No. 23) Upper Goshen

Built in 1911. Length 17.7m (58') (one of two shortest covered bridges in county)

Take Rte. 1 to Exit 211 for Fundy Park. Follow Rte. 114 towards Fundy Park until you reach Goshen Road on your left. Follow Goshen Road to bridge.

Marven (Belleisle Creek No. 2) Belleisle Creek

Built in 1903. Length 21.6m (71') (oldest covered bridge in Kings County)

On Swamp Road near Belleisle Creek. From Rte. 121, turn on to Rte. 855 to Springfield. Turn east on to Rte. 870, and follow to Swamp Road on the right. Follow Swamp Road to bridge.

Moore's Mill (Trout Creek No. 5) Waterford

Built in 1923. Length 17.8m (58' 6")

At Waterford, near Poley Mountain. From Rte. 111, turn on to Waterford Road, then on to Drummond Road.

Moosehorn Creek No. 1.5 Norton (Not in service)

Built in 1915. Length 28.9m (94' 8")

On Rte. 1, near mileage marker 170, at Norton

Oldfields (Smith Creek No. 5) Newtown

Built in 1910. Length 28m (92')

(3.7 metres max. clearance, 15-ton load capacity)

Follow Rte. 890 13 km from Exit 195 off Rte. 1 at Sussex. Oldfields cross road will be on your right, with bridge visible from Rte. 890.

This is the second most known covered bridge in New Brunswick as it appeared on the 1992 New Brunswick quarter issued to mark Canada's 125th anniversary

Plumweseep (Kennebecasis River No. 9) Plumweseep

Built in 1911. Length 22.5m (74')

(4.2 metre tall clearance, 15-ton load capacity)

Follow Route 890 for 1 km from Exit 195 off Rte. 1 at Sussex. Turn right on to Plumweseep Road, follow to the end. Turn right on to Plumweseep Cross Road and follow to bridge.

Salmon (Kennebecasis River No. 7.5) Sussex (Not in service)

Built in 1908. Length 34.2m (112' 2")

Follow Route 890 for 1 km from Exit 195 off Rte. 1 at Sussex. Bridge is on your left.

Smithtown (Hammond River No. 3)

Built in 1914. Length 55.7m (182' 9") (longest covered bridge in county)

On Damascus Road at Smithtown. From Route 100, turn on to Rte. 860. Follow Rte. 860 (Lakeside Road) approx. 5km past Hwy 1 overpass before turning right on to Damascus Road. Follow to bridge.

Tranton (Smith Creek No. 1) Roachville

Built in 1927. Length 36.7m (120' 6") (youngest covered bridge in Kings County)

(4.2 metre tall clearance, 15-ton load capacity)

Follow Route 890 for 2 km from Exit 195 off Rte. 1 at Sussex. Turn left on to Roachville Road, and follow 1 km to bridge.

Urney (Trout Creek No. 4) Waterford

Built in 1905. Length 20.1m (66')

At Waterford, near Poley Mountain. Head 12 km east along Rte. 111 from flashing light in Sussex Corner. Turn left on to Urney Road and follow to bridge.

For more information, visit the Celebrate Sussex web site www.celebratesussex.com